

Dear friends,

Much has happened since my message on Monday regarding Andrew Brunson's situation. Two quick updates and prayer requests:

1. I received word last night that the American Center for Law and Justice (ACLJ), which is representing the Brunson family in legal efforts, is delivering an oral intervention at the United Nations in New York on Andrew's behalf today.
2. USA Today reported yesterday that the Turkish Prime Minister will consider speeding up Andrew's trial. As I reflected on Monday with the Admiral Stockdale story, the reality of the situation is such that this may or may not be good news for Andrew. The article is here, and has been added to our Andrew Brunson resource page at www.epc.org/forgottenamericaninturkey.

Will you take a moment right now and pray for Andrew, specifically regarding these two developments? Pray for his wife, Norine, also as she ministers to Andrew through her weekly visits to the prison, and lives a roller coaster of emotions when new developments occur.

Feel free to share this message and the Andrew Brunson page on the EPC website with your congregation and other friends. As I noted on Monday, we recognize the reality of Andrew's situation but continue to believe God for Andrew's safe return to home and family in the United States.

God bless you and remember, He is risen!

Jeff
